

Code of Ethics of Marina Río Valdivia (Inglés)

Introduction:

Marina Río Valdivia is a meeting place for sea and sailing enthusiasts, where the passion for sport and recreation is promoted in a safe and respectful environment. To maintain this spirit, we commit to follow the following ethical principles:

1. Respect and courtesy:

- Treat all members and visitors with respect and courtesy.
- Be kind and considerate to others, especially new members and visitors.

2. Safety and responsibility:

- Comply with all safety standards and applicable regulations.
- Be responsible for your own safety and that of others on board.

3. Environmental protection:_

- Respect and protect the marine environment.
- Minimize the environmental impact of our activities.

4. Responsible use of resources:

- Use water and electricity in a responsible and efficient manner.
- Turn off lights, pumps, and other equipment when not in use.
- Do not waste water or make unnecessary discharges.

5. Integrity and honesty:_

- Act with integrity and honesty in all our interactions.
- Do not participate in activities that could harm the reputation of Marina Río Valdivia or its members.

6. Respect for rules and regulations:_

- Comply with the rules and regulations of Marina Río Valdivia, as well as applicable laws and regulations.

7. Solidarity and support:

- Support and help other members of Marina Río Valdivia when necessary.
- Foster a spirit of camaraderie and friendship among members.

8. Professionalism and excellence:

- Strive for excellence in all our activities.
- Maintain a level of professionalism in all our interactions.

Conclusion:

By joining Marina Río Valdivia, we commit to respect and comply with this code of ethics, to maintain a safe, respectful, and pleasant environment for all.

Marina Río Valdivia
+569-81589502
marinariovaldivia@gmail.com